

Gaston HR BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I. PURPOSE

A. Name

The name shall be Gaston HR (herein referred to as the "Chapter"). To avoid potential confusion, the Chapter will refer to itself as Gaston HR and not as SHRM or the Society for Human Resource Management.

B. Affiliation

This Chapter shall be an affiliate of the Society for Human Resource Management, hereinafter "SHRM". All members shall be required to be SHRM members except where that requirement is specifically waived by the Board. Under no circumstances, however, will there ever be fewer than 25 SHRM members and more than half of all members must be SHRM members. Every company must have at least one national SHRM member who is also a Gaston HR member. SHRM certification required for at least 1 member of each organization represented in Gaston HR.

C. Relationships

The Chapter is a separate legal entity from SHRM. It shall not be deemed to be an agency or instrumentality of SHRM or of a State Council, and SHRM shall not be deemed to be an agency or instrumentality of the Chapter. The Chapter shall not hold itself out to the public as an agent of SHRM without express written consent of SHRM. The Chapter shall not contract in the name of SHRM without the express written consent of SHRM.

D. Goal and Objectives

1. To encourage, promote and effect the voluntary interchange among Gaston area Chapter members of data, information, experience, ideas and knowledge about methods, processes and techniques relating to the profession of Human Resources and Industrial or Labor Relations.
2. To observe ethical and professional standards of work and to foster and encourage observance of the same for all practitioners of Human Resources and Industrial or Labor Relations.
3. To hold seminars and meetings on Human Resources related matters and current issues for Chapter members, guests, and nonmember business professionals.
4. To recognize, promote and generally enhance the Human Resources profession by communicating the activities and accomplishments of Chapter and its members to the business community.

5. To make the communities we live in and the organization we serve better places as a result of our combined efforts in the practice and promotion of Human Resources professionalism.

The President, the appointment of chairperson being subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IX. PROCEDURAL GUIDELINES

A. Roberts Rules of Order shall govern proceedings of all general, special, and regular meetings of the Organization and its constituent parts, except as provided in these By-Laws.

ARTICLE X. SPECIAL DELEGATIONS

A. Delegations of committees shall be appointed by the President, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, to represent the Organization at any convention, meetings, or assembly as may be necessary. They shall have no authority to bind or obligate the Organization to any expense, or to concur in any action contrary to the expressed policy of the Organization. The President shall act as Chairman of such delegations, but in the event of his/her absence, he/she shall appoint a member to serve in his/her place.

ARTICLE XI. AMENDMENTS

A. Any amendment to these By-Laws will first be forwarded to SHRM for approval before the amendment is offered to the membership for consideration. The By-Laws may be amended by a simple majority vote at any meeting which a quorum is present, provided that the members have been given at least 10 calendar days notice of the proposed amendment. No amendment shall be effective unless and until approved by the SHRM President/CEO or his/her designee as being in furtherance of the purposes of the SHRM and not in conflict with SHRM bylaws. Any motion to amend the bylaws shall clearly state that it is not effective unless and until approved by the SHRM President/CEO or his/her designee.

ARTICLE XII. STATEMENT OF ETHICS AND NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY STATEMENT

A. In order to promote the highest standards of ethics and professionalism, this chapter adopts the SHRM Code of Ethical Standards for its members. Each member shall honor, support, and advance the purposes of SHRM and this chapter.

B. No member shall actively solicit business from any other member at Association meetings or through the use of information provided to them as a member of the Association without the approval of the Board of Directors.

C. The Chapter is an Equal Opportunity Organization without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, disability, or veteran status in connection with, but not limited, to, membership, committee appointments, and candidates for office.

ARTICLE XIII. CHAPTER DISSOLUTION

A. In the event of the chapter's dissolution, the remaining monies in the Treasury, after chapter expenses have been paid, will be contributed to an organization decided upon by the Board of Directors at the time of dissolution (e.g. the SHRM Foundation, a local student chapter, the State Council, and HR degree program, or other such organization or charity with purposes consistent with those of the Chapter).

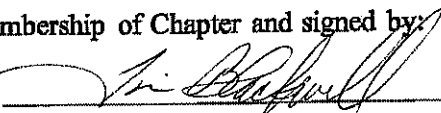

ARTICLE XIV. WITHDRAWAL OF AFFILIATED CHAPTER STATUS

A. Affiliated chapter status may be withdrawn by the President/CEO of SHRM or his/her designee as a representative of the SHRM Board of Directors upon finding that the activities of the Chapter are inconsistent with or contrary to the best interests of SHRM. Prior to the withdrawal of such status, the Chapter shall have an opportunity to review a written statement of the reasons for such a proposal within a thirty (30) day period. In addition, when the Chapter fails to maintain the required affiliation standards as set forth by the SHRM Board of Directors, it is subject to immediate disaffiliation by SHRM. After withdrawal of Chapter status, the SHRM Board of Directors may cause a new Chapter to be created, or, with the consent of the President/CEO of SHRM and the consent of the body which has had Chapter status withdrawn, may re-confer Chapter status upon such body.

ARTICLE XIV. INTENT OF BY-LAWS

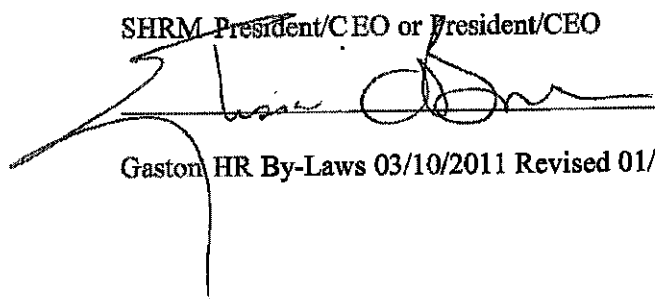

A. These by-laws are to be read, construed, and applied in a manner consistent with the requirements imposed by SHRM on its chapters. Should any portion of these By-Laws appear to conflict with any SHRM requirement, then the SHRM requirement will supersede these By-Laws and will be controlling.
